

CRITICAL INCIDENT MANAGEMENT

Provided by Drake WorkWise

Critical Incidents or traumatic events are usually sudden or threatening events that can severely impact the emotional, mental and physical wellbeing of staff involved. Critical Incident Management was designed by Drake WorkWise to ensure when managing a major incident, your organisation has proactive steps and responses to effectively support and minimise impact on your workforce.

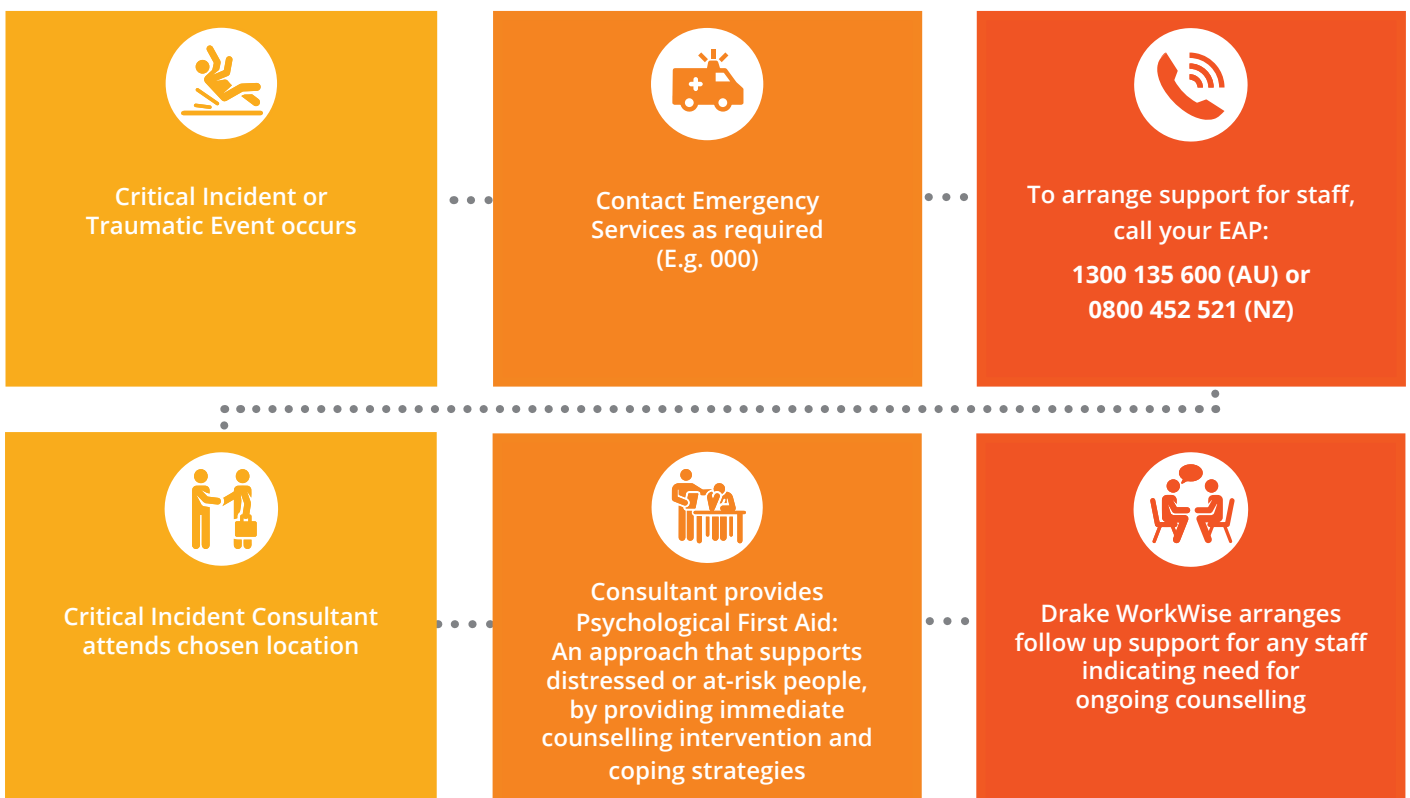

We're here to support you through any incident, such as:

- Death of a co-worker
- Assault or violence
- Accident or Injury
- Realised Threat or Near Miss
- Natural Disasters
- Bomb Threat

MANAGING THE UNEXPECTED

Our Critical Incident Management guide offers staff timely support, early intervention and guidance following an incident. Support is provided to staff by our dedicated and highly experienced critical incident consultants, available 24/7.

The following is a guide to help you be prepared and manage the unexpected:

24 Hour Access

1300 135 600 (AU) 0800 452 521 (NZ)